

2018 New Hanover High School Art Competition

Wilmington Art Association and Hannah Block Historic USO/Community Arts Center are pleased to have sponsored the 2018 New Hanover High School Art Competition, May 24 – 27, 2018, at the Hannah Block Center. Participating schools were John T. Hoggard High School, Cape Fear Academy, Emsley A. Laney High School, and Coastal Christian High School. Winners of the competition are as follows.

2-D

1st Place Anna Lawrence, "Barley on the Bow", acrylic painting
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Anne Sinclair

2nd Place Will Meinheit, "Trapped", white pencil
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Ann Sinclair

3rd Place Dana Bumbalo, "Ancient World", pen and ink
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Ann Sinclair

Honorable Mentions:

Maria McKnight, "Untitled", pen, ink, and watercolor
Coastal Christian High School, Teacher - Gabe Lovejoy

Peyton Wallace, "Puzzled", mixed media
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Ann Sinclair

Catherine Starling, "Art Room in Still Life", colored pencil
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Ann Sinclair

Kelsie Bennett, "Serenity", photography
Laney High School, Teacher - Andrea Haley

3-D

1st Place Kayla Tilghman, "Cherry Blossom Yunomi", earthenware
Laney High School, Teacher - Kyle Legates

2nd Place Holt Parks, "Tall Vessel"
Laney High School, Teacher - Kyle Legates

3rd Place Ude Odibo, "Shifting", ceramic
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Mrs. Hunt

2018 New Hanover High School Art Competition

Honorable Mentions:

Sandra Talbot, "Oceanic Wonders", ceramic
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Mrs. Hunt

Salena Nguyen, "Blue and White Bowl", earthenware
Laney High School, Teacher - Kyle Legates

Morgan Bettenhausen, "SEA – NERY", ceramic
Hoggard High School, Teacher – Mrs. Hunt

Maysa Hilou, "Escape of the Ocean Moon", ceramic
Hoggard High School, Teacher - Mrs. Hunt